

Life in the Tee Pee

The Tee Pee restaurant was a landmark in the Fraser Canyon during the 1940s and 50s. This book is June Koropeccki's story of coming to BC, building the Tee Pee, and running the restaurant while raising her family. The book contains the author's illustrations and family photographs.

Our price: $26.95